

Professional & Support Staff Temp Team Tips

1

Welcome and thank you for attending your interview with Slade Group. By now you will have read our On-hired Agreement and read & signed our Authority to Represent.

If you have not yet completed our OH&S Online Induction, WorkPro, please check your email for the information on how to do this and ensure it is completed as soon as possible.

Our policy is we request you complete the Workpro assessment prior to commencing your first temporary assignment.

4

Your Consultant will be in contact regarding suitable jobs that may interest you. If you accept the assignment, an assignment confirmation will be emailed with all details, alongside an OH&S checklist to be completed with your supervisor on your first day.

2

When you next log onto your own PC you will have received an online candidate survey to complete. It's important we receive your feedback in order for us to continue to improve our services.

5

When successful for an assignment, you will receive an email with information on our online timesheets. This email will include a User ID and Password that you will need to take with you to your assignment so you can access your

3

Please keep in touch with your Consultant on a weekly basis to update your availability or to let us know you've found work.

6

On the last working day of each week, please submit your timesheet for approval. Approved timesheets are processed every Wednesday and you will receive your pay into your nominated bank account on the Thursday. If there is a public holiday at the start of the week then our pay run will be delayed by 24 hours. Please let us know immediately if your timesheet approver is absent or unavailable to approve your timesheet.
